

Prime areas of learning

Personal, Social, Emotional Development

1decision

'Children's personal, social and emotional development is crucial for children to lead healthy and happy lives and is fundamental to their cognitive development'.

- School rules
- Introduce Zones of Regulation
- Class Charter
- Expectations in different areas in the Reception environment
- Social stories, mindfulness moments & discussions to support children as appropriate.

Communication and Language

- Listening to stories
- Drawing and talking about my family
- Re telling stories using maps, props and stepping a story
- Talking about feelings & opinions
- Tell a story using a story map.

Physical Development

- Active Area outside
- Scissors skills
- Changing for PE
- Travelling safely & stopping to a signal
- Exploring ways of jumping
- Dance
- Funky Finger activities
- Nursery rhymes and actions

Autumn Term 1*

All About Me

Themes/Interests

Celebrations

Harvest Festival

Autumn

Black History Month

Key texts

Little Red Hen

Little Apple Goat

The Very Helpful

Hedgehog

We are all Different

Enrichment

Opportunities

Autumn Walk

Year 6 Buddies visit

*Reviewed 2023

Specific areas of learning

Literacy

- Reading and writing their names
- Bug Club phonics- Phase 2 & irregular words
- Phonic games
- Sharing books and stories
- Creating story maps

Mathematics (WhiteRose)

- Match, sort and compare.
- Measure and pattern
- 1,2,3

Understanding the World

- Tour of the school
- Talking about family
- Investigating bread & apples
- Planting bulbs
- Using class iPads
- Harvest

Expressive arts and design

- Choosing resources in the 'Creative Area'
- Model making
- Work of Alma Thomas
- Collaging
- Clay hedgehog
- Role play/ performing on the stage.